

There Is / There Are

One thing or many things?

There is

Use THERE IS for one thing.

- There is a book.
- There is a ball.
- There is one cat.

There are

Use THERE ARE for many things.

- There are two books.
- There are many balls.
- There are five pencils.

Compare

There is one apple.

There are many apples.

There is a bag.

There are three bags.

Your Turn
_____ a book on the table.

There is

There are one book

Try Again

_____ two pencils in the bag.

There is

There are two pencils means many

Read Aloud

There is a cat.

There are three balls.

There is one pencil.

There are many books.

Remember

- 1 There is = one
- 2 There are = many
- 3 Count first
- 4 Then say the sentence

